

Carbondale, Pa., March 8, 1927

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This to certify that Miss Edna Loomis has been a teacher in the Carbondale High School for the past twelve years.

Miss Loomis is a teacher of rare skill and ability, possessing those qualities of tact, discernment, sincerity, and a love for her work, which are so essential and necessary for the development and success of both teacher and student.

She is faithful in the discharge of every obligation, as well as inspiring, and has had that measure of success that makes the profession worth-while. Her experience and scholarship are such as to merit the esteem, confidence, and good-will of her associates, and it is with great pleasure that I can most heartily commend her to the consideration of Principals and Superintendents.

Respectfully,

A large, flowing cursive signature in black ink. The signature appears to read "C. L. Loomis" and is enclosed within a decorative, symmetrical flourish of loops and swirls.
